THE 66 KEYHOLE

Reuben Hoar Library
Littleton, Mass.

DEDICATION

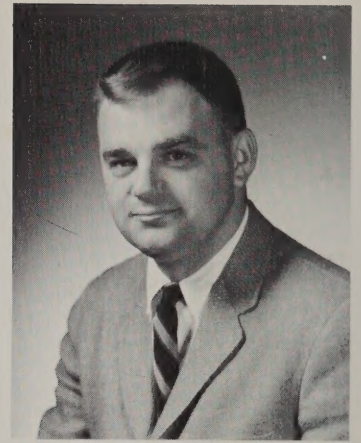

Although he has been our class advisor for only two years, Mr. Gurner has helped us complete successfully our two most active years at Littleton High School. In dedicating this year's Keyhole to Mr. Gurner, we, the class of 1966, wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for his encouragement and his genuine concern for each one of us.

Your teachers at Littleton High School have made every attempt to get you started towards your educational goals. For you, the real work and decisions still lie ahead. How well and what you have learned cannot fully be realized upon graduation from high school. Your future decisions, actions, and success will be the test of how well you have learned your lessons.

I sincerely hope that your educational and social experiences the last four years will guide you always.

Teacher

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Elva Yolanda Hidalgo Hidalgo

Mere words are completely inadequate to express the deep gratitude I feel in my heart to everyone connected with this wonderful school, and particularly to my classmates who have been so warm in their attitude towards me, so sincere in their offerings of friendship, and so generous with their time. These kindnesses I shall never forget.

Through the American Field Service Scholarship, I have not only assumed the role of Juvenile Ambassador, but of far greater importance, I have been given an opportunity to share in the lives of young Americans. I have learned to recognize the fundamental ideals common to all peoples who, though differing in customs, language, environment, and attitudes, nevertheless dream the same dreams, struggle to achieve the same goals, and yearn for that greatest of God's blessings, universal peace and understanding.

The knowledge and experience I have acquired during my year's stay here in Littleton will be put to good use when I return to my own country. Through my contact with Americans, I have learned the true meaning of liberty, justice, and democracy, and it is my intention to do whatever I can to further the growth of these principles in my native country.

An abstract geometric design featuring a series of black and white rectangles and lines. The design is composed of several horizontal and vertical elements. A thick black horizontal line runs across the middle of the page. To the right of this line, there are several vertical black bars of varying heights. Above the horizontal line, there are several white rectangles with black outlines, some of which are partially obscured by the black bars. The overall composition is minimalist and modern.

Football 1965 -- A Fine Team, A Fine Season!

The values received from participation in football are numerous and everlasting. In order to gain them, however, one must first prove his merit through "sweat, blood, and tears."

The 1965 football team gave 100% of itself for the greater honor of the team, LHS, and the community. They were truly "tigers" who found victory in the sweet manifestations of hard work, sacrifice, and self-discipline. They richly deserve the recognition of being an outstanding team and should long cherish the values inculcated through the long season.

Girls Field Hockey 1965

The 1965 girls' field hockey season proved to be LHS's most successful since the inclusion of hockey in the physical education program.

The season began with a loss to the highly skilled Acton team. This defeat, however, was not repeated. The Littleton varsity swept through the Wachusett League with a perfect record of wins.

In an exciting contest with Nashoba Regional, the Tigers gained the Eastern Division championship. This was the first time that our girls were able to defeat Nashoba and gain possession of the Eastern title.

The Wachusett League championship match was as exciting as it was unique. The varsity team from Lunenburg High School, the Western Division champions, provided some skilled and powerful competition. The first meeting of these two teams resulted in a tie game. Although the Littleton defense proved itself insurmountable, we were unable to score. However, in a hard fought second encounter, the Littleton Tigers finally reigned as victors.

Our Hockey teams' success is a result of four years of very hard work. They have progressed from the ranks of the novice and have achieved the status of the highly skilled. Through this process, they have managed to achieve a fine sense of sportsmanship and a healthy spirit of competition. The culmination of their high school hockey competition has resulted in the attainment of excellence.

"The team that won't be beat, can't be beat," was the rallying cry of the 1966 L.H.S. Girls' Basketball Team.

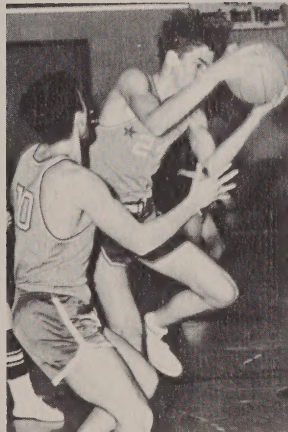

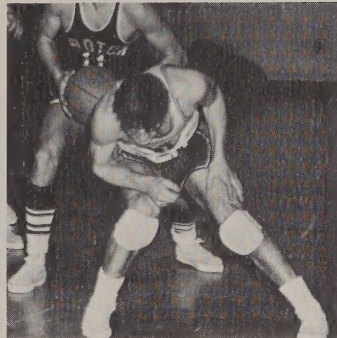

The belief in the above motto, confidence in themselves, an aggressive defense by guards -- Paula Shimmel, Donna Potter, Brenda Keir, Valliria McCarthy, Sandy Champagne; a spirited offense by forwards Peggy Prendiville, Denyse Pasciuto, Sue Westby, Carol Maynard, Cheryl Maynard, and Kathy Iverson, gave the L.H.S. girls the momentum needed to win, and win they did -- climaxing the season with one of the most exciting Girls Championship Basketball games ever played at L.H.S. Lunenburg's Blue Knights were unable to cope with the "Tigers" spirited attack. The Tiger's speed, accurate passing, and split second reflexes had the crowd on its feet most of the night and their coach, Mrs. McManus, sitting QUIETLY on the bench.

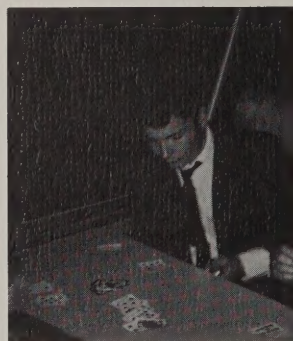

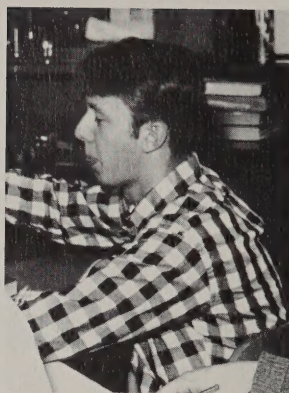

The game was well played and the crowd was appreciative but only Mrs. Crowley, their previous coach, and Mrs. McManus knew how much winning this championship meant to the girls and how hard they worked the last four years for the right to say, "We are the best in the league."

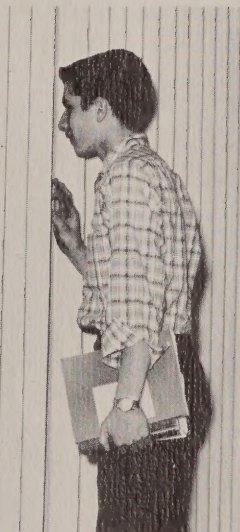

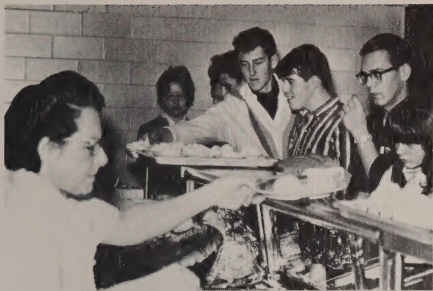

Congratulations! -- We'll miss ALL the seniors next year!
